We offer incredible opportunities for people from all around the world to work and travel in Canada. You can earn up to $1900 CAD and have a great time in one of the amazing Canadian Camps we work with. It's what Camp Canada is all about. You just have to be aware of the moose, maple syrup and mounties!

Those who apply with Camp Canada can expect to work in one of many residential camps all across Canada. If you have a sense of adventure then applying with us means you could be working as an outdoor wilderness leader, if not there are other positions including swim instructors, horse riding instructors or dance teachers amongst many others!

It from everyone and from all parts of the world. really is the perfect way to spend a summer abroad or as part of a gap year abroad. Remember you don't even need to be a student so we welcome applications

Camp Canada offers you the chance to live, eat and work with children, teaching sports, working in the great outdoors and changing lives forever! There's also the chance to travel after your work contract finishes so you can explore Canada and experience it's culture.

You will be expected to work up to ten weeks and once you pay program fees can earn up to $1900 CAD. You will need to be aged 19 or over to apply, but if you want to spend the summer working and travelling in Canada then Camp Canada is where it all starts! Forget about Camp America be different and come meet the wonderful people of Canada!

The Positions

There are three positions you can apply for at a Camp in Canada. They are general camp counsellor, activities camp counsellor and support staff. While the counsellor positions are the most popular and have you working closely with the children, all positions need you to be highly energetic and outgoing. Theses positions are great opportunities to boost your skills, add international work to your CV and to immerse yourself in the Canadian culture.

The Application Process

Applying to Camp Canada is quite simple and throughout the process we are there to help you through. If you have any questions along the way one of our staff members are always ready and willing to answer them.

Stage One: Application and Interview

Stage Two: Documentation

Stage Three: Placement & Visa

Orientation

TYPES OF CAMPS

Traditional

Most camps in Canada are traditional camps. These have a broad focus and campers will be doing a varies of activities such as water-sports, arts and crafts and outdoor activities.

Underpreviledge

Camps that cater to underprivileged youths. Theses camps offer the same activities and experience as traditional camps.

Girl Guides

These camps cater to young girls in the Girl Guide movement. Most campers and staff will live in platform tents.

Camp Canada participants have 30 days to travel after camp so make sure you make the most of it. Is America on your travel bucket list? Well it's only a hop, skip and a jump (actually just a plane ride or road trip away) from Canada. Why not join in one of AmeriCamp's legendary NYC or Vegas After Camp Parties? You will meet even more people as you take in the spectacular sights of 'the city that never sleeps' or party in the 'city of sin'. You never know what crazy adventures await you on these trips, so what are you waiting for? Let the fun begin! x

Canadian Natural Wonders: Explore Wild Canada!

So you've had a life changing summer working at a fun filled Canadian summer camp. Now it's time to take off and explore the rest of beautiful country. Whether you want to explore nature, have a wild adventure or just see some cool creatures, Canada has it all and more. Here's some Canadian natural wonders we think you need to see to complete the summer of a lifetime!

Aurora Borealis

It's guaranteed you will never see anything quite as beautiful as the Aurora Borealis. Also known as the Northern Lights, this mystical phenomenon has had people from all corners of the globe travelling to see it for themselves. In Canada, they are lucky enough to have several view points of the Lights in the Sky, such as British Columbia and Albera. Surely it's one for the bucket list.

Once this payment is made, you'll receive an application. After you have complete your application and returned it back to the team, we'll review your application and, if you are a rock star on paper, invite you to do an interview with either a member of staff or your local campus manager. These interviews are informal, but informative meetings that allow us to get to know you and your skills better so that we can ensure you have the strongest application possible and that we have the correct information about you to match you up with the right camp.

Feedback

Website: https://x5abraham.github.io/Abrahamcamp/html/index.html

Feedback from User 1/2:

What do you think about the presentation of the site? .i.e. graphics, layout, usability. & Why?

Response:

The website looks well-made and professional, the graphics are not the best because some lot elongated/stretched out but overall they do look good, just to a professional level.

In the programmes and FAQS page you included a dropdown menu that reveal hidden paragraphs when you click on the container. This I think helped usability because it helped make the long paragraphs short... Plus it made the following along easier but what the hell were the text saying? You should have translated it.

Are there any features you feel could/should be added to the site?

Response:

You could add videos, a map (google maps), and a search engine.

Have you found any errors on the website? If so what have you found?

Response:

The image on the left side of the title "About Camp Canada" doesn't show. Under the image slider there is a sliver image showing, I feel like it's not supposed to be there. Also when the image slider loads, it first loads as a full rectangular image and then it transforms and adds the arrow underneath it, I don't know if this is done tensional or not but it doesn't look generic.

Tick if these image slider options work:

Response:

Does the arrow pointing left send you to the previous image when clicked?

Does the arrow pointing right send you to the next image when clicked?

Do the images show?

Does the fade in/out animations when the images load?

Does the arrow pointing down scroll you down the page when you click on it?

Does the layout on the about page help make the large paragraphs look attractive in any way? Do you feel more confident to attempt reading it thanks to the way it's broken up?

Response:

Yes.

What is your opinion about the grey slide-down boxes on the programmes page? Do you believe it's necessary?

Response:

My opinion on it is positive, however I do think you should its graphics because as it is now, its graphics looks like a basic default.

Do you think that the travel page is too plain and simple? If so what do you think should be added to make this more interesting?

Response:

I wouldn't say the page is 'too' plain and simple but it definitely does look plain simple. I think you should add a little more information in this page like maybe a map, and maybe some more information on the page's purpose.

What are your thoughts on the animation that plays when you load on to the contact page?

Response:

I love it, it makes a very simple page more entertaining to be on, and in my opinion it's the best page on the site.

Does the login & registration page forms consists of all needed for a secure login/registration? Why?

Response:

Yes because the login lets me put in my username and my password and the registration registers my Full name, Username, personal information & password.

How do you find navigation on this site? Why do you think that?

Response:

I find it easy because the navigation is put up at the top where it's clear and easy to find, the webpages are named appropriately so it's easy to remember the page names and journey there through other sources other than the top navigation bar link the address bar (on the browser).

Feedback from User 2/2:

What do you think about the presentation of the site? .i.e. graphics, layout, usability. & Why?

Response:

The layout of the site is clean and professional and the usability of the site is easy to go through and no one would find it hard to find their way around the site.

Are there any features you feel could/should be added to the site?

Response:

No.

Have you found any errors on the website? If so what have you found?

Response:

No.

Tick if these image slider options work:

Response:

Does the arrow pointing left send you to the previous image when clicked?

Does the arrow pointing right send you to the next image when clicked?

Do the images show?

Does the fade in/out animations when the images load?

Does the arrow pointing down scroll you down the page when you click on it?

Does the layout on the about page help make the large paragraphs look attractive in any way? Do you feel more confident to attempt reading it thanks to the way it's broken up?

Response:

Yes.

What is your opinion about the grey slide-down boxes on the programmes page? Do you believe it's necessary?

Response:

Yes as it would not look attractive if there wasn't a drop down box, it would make the navigation looks long.

Do you think that the travel page is too plain and simple? If so what do you think should be added to make this more interesting?

Response:

Yes as there is just a plain red box on the left hand side instead of leaving it plain could have put a little animation going on the side.

What are your thoughts on the animation that plays when you load on to the contact page?

Response:

It looks cool how do you do it?

Does the login & registration page forms consists of all needed for a secure login/registration? Why?
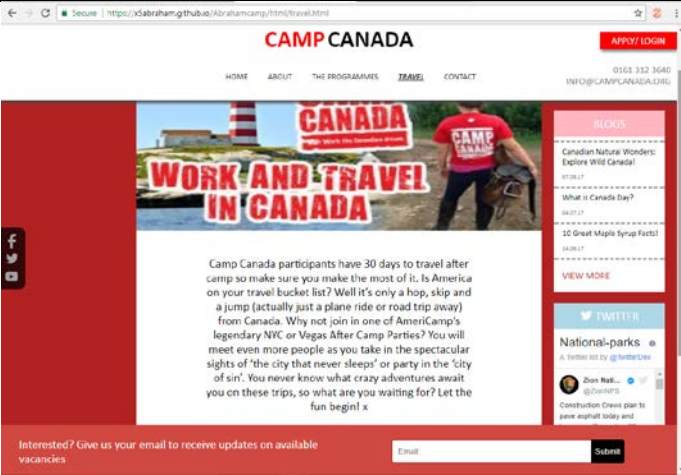

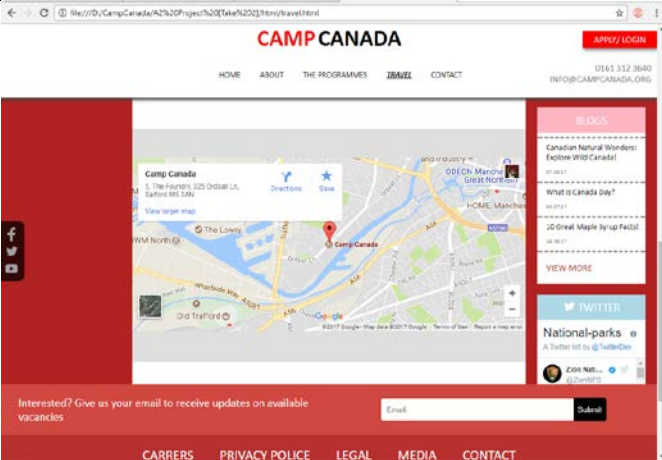

Response:

Yes as it is the required thing that is needed when logging in.

How do you find navigation on this site? Why do you think that?

Response:

The navigation is good as it's not too fancy and when clicking on the navigation bar the color changes to a color which won't make anyone confuse.

Improvements based on Feedback

	IMAGE (EVIDENCE)	FIX
Explain	In my feedback, it was suggested that I should add more content to the travel page, and one feature that was suggested to include in my site was a map.	I embed camp Canada's Google map location on the about page.
Before
After

Explain	When the image was small the map was to be seen at top of the page.	Changed the height so the image would take more space hiding the map.
Before
After
Explain	Someone had told me that the horizontal list of hyperlinks in the footer are too big, when on the travel page (before updated) their attention was lured towards that instead of the main body text/information.	I corrected that by making the font size smaller.
Before
After

Explain	The loading speed for the filter took too long, I couldn't efficiently fix this.	Since I couldn't properly fix this problem I decided to fix it by removing it.
